The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 12. to Saturday November 16. 1717.

Venice, November 5.

BY a Ship from Raguſa we have received Advice, that General Sebaſtian Mocenigo, who commands the Troops of this Republick in Dalmatia, had made himſelf Maſter of the Suburbs of Antivari, and raiſed a Battery againſt the Place, which 'twas believed would ſoon oblige the Governour to ſurrender. By Letters from Cephalonia we have an Account, that the Captain General Piſani, with the Men of War and Gallies, was ſtill at Zant waiting for a fair Wind, but that every Thing was on board neceſſary for undertaking the Siege of Preveſa. Two Men of War of the ſecond Rate, will be launched next Week in our Arſenal.

Dreſden, Nov. 13. A Popiſh Prieſt at Leipſick, named Eckhart, having in a late Sermon inveighed againſt the Doctrine and Perſon of Luther, upon Occaſion of the Jubilee obſerved by the Proteſtants of this Country for the Eſtabliſhment of the Reformation in it, ſome Students there got together, aſſaulted him in his Houſe, and burnt his Effigies, with that of the Pope, before the Gates of the principal College. The laſt Letters from Warſaw tell us, that the Czar had cauſed publick Notice to be given in all the Palatinates, that all thoſe who had received any Damage by his Troops, might make their Complaints to Commiſſioners appointed by him for that Purpoſe, whom he had ordered to give them Satisfaction. Thoſe Letters add, that the Ruſſian Troops were on their March out of that Kingdom, having ſold the Magazines they had in ſeveral Places of Poland and Lithuania.

Copenhagen, Nov. 17. A Number of Tranſports are taking in Proviſions here for Norway, whither they are to ſail in a few Days under the Convoy of a Man of War: Four other Men of War are fitting out to cruiſe in the Baltick. The King of Poland has notified by a Letter to his Daniſh Majeſty, the Electoral Prince his Son's Change of Religion; to which an Anſwer has been returned by his Daniſh Majeſty, importing, that he cannot but be concerned at it, the rather becauſe by this Proceeding the ſaid Prince has forfeited his Right of Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms if it ſhould happen to devolve to his Family. Tho' ſeveral foreign Miniſters at this Court have made preſſing Inſtances, for the Hambourg Ships which remain under Arreſt at Gluckſtadt to be releaſed, his Daniſh Majeſty has not yet declared his Mind poſitively on that Subject.

Cologne, Nov. 19. On the 15th Inſtant the Count of Manderſcheidt-Blanckenheim, the Emperour's Plenipotentiary, made his publick Entry into this City with great Magnificence, attended by two Troops of Burghers on Horſeback. He was ſaluted with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon, and of the ſmall Arms of the Garriſon which ſtood drawn up on the Ramparts; and the Companies of Burghers on Foot lined the Streets through which he paſſed to the Houſe provided for his Reception. On the 16th the Magiſtrates, and Officers Civil and Military, of the City, went to receive his Excellency at his Lodgings, and the Burghers again lining the Streets, conducted him to the Town-Houſe, where he received in the Emperour's Name the Homage of the Magiſtrates, Council, and